“KREON” is now ISO Certified

We're proud to be awarded ISO 9001:2015 & ISO 27001:2013 Certification from an independent, internationally accredited certification company, an internationally recognized standard that ensures our products and services meet the needs of our customers through an effective quality management system.

We have developed and implemented our quality management system in order to improve overall performance, maintain a high level of quality and to provide a sound basis for sustainable development initiatives. Our Decision to work towards ISO 9001:2015 & ISO 27001:2013 accreditation demonstrates our commitment to provide high-quality deliverables to our clients and our ongoing investment in technology and development.

This globally recognized certification of quality management system standards is in full support with Kreon's commitment to creating and maintaining quality processes that ensure consistency, visibility, and accountability across our business operations.

ISO certification is voluntary and compliance must be verified through an independent agency on a regular basis. A yearly audit will be conducted to maintain Kreon's certification status, and a more extensive audit will be completed once every three years for certification renewal.

ISO certification not only attests to Kreon’s commitment to continual improvement, but also to provide our business with more opportunities to conduct its operations in the global marketplace.

The credit of getting an ISO Certificate goes to our employees who strived for several days and worked harder and remained committed to this. Our support teams have been working very hard on process improvements, standardizing our processes, defining quality standards, and documenting them, facing internal and external audits over the last few months. Our ISO certification indicates that we have elevated our organization to the level of a quality Organization.

Kreon’s Director, Jaijash Tatia says –

“Achieving ISO 9001:2015 & ISO 27001:2013 certification is fantastic news and means our customers have complete assurance and our company operates to the highest quality standard.”

He adds: “With this certification, Kreon’s technology, people and process have been vetted against rigid quality standards outlined by ISO. I am extremely proud of my team for their achievement, which proves the company’s and employees’ commitment to ensuring quality and providing the best possible service to our clients. We are dedicated to constant improvement & development, also achieving and maintaining our ISO accreditations ensures we have the processes and systems in place for this.

As a recognized pioneer and leader in the finance industry for nearly 28 years, Kreon decided that pursuing ISO certification was the next fundamental step towards our mission of continuous quality improvements. The demanding certification and audit process demonstrates Kreon’s unwavering dedication to providing the highest-quality standards in products and services that meet or surpass our customer’s expectations. This latest accomplishment confirms the company’s perseverance towards holistic excellence.

Our goal is to provide all of our customers with high-quality deliverables as well as safe and Secure Solutions. ISO certifications are proof that we are on our way to becoming a distinct organization.”

A Continuous Improvement Culture

Kreon’s decision to work towards ISO 9001:2015 and ISO 27001:2013 accreditation demonstrates their commitment to continually improving their products and services.

Our Relentless Focus on Excellence

ISO is one of the most rigorous and well-regarded standards in the world. Gaining ISO 9001:2015 & ISO 27001:2013 reinforces Kreon's relentless focus on creating industry-leading products and services, measured against global benchmarks of industry excellence.
